Is a voluntary Association, embracing all the Congregational Clergy of the Commonwealth, but vested with no particular authority or control over the churches.

Their meeting is held in Boston, on the last Wednesday in May, annually, at half past three, P. M. and the following day. Rev. George W. Blagden, of Boston, Scribe of the Convention.

For the purpose of investigating cases of necessity, and of application for the charity of the Convention, there are two standing Committees; a Central Committee, chosen centrally, and a Reporting Committee, whose members reside in different parts of the State. The Reporting Committee are required, each year, to investigate the circumstances of the objects of this charity, whether already on the list, or needing, or applying the first time for aid, and make a particular statement to the Central Committee, directed to the Scribe of the Convention, at least one week before the meeting of the Convention. Should any member neglect so to do for two successive years, his place in the Reporting Committee shall be vacated. The Central Committee receive from the members of the Reporting Committee applications and statements of facts in behalf of subjects of the charity of the Convention, and, having considered the same, are to judge of the persons to be relieved, and the proportion to be given to each, and make report to the Convention, on the first day of their meeting, annually.

The statements of the members of the Reporting

Committee are expected to contain answers to the following questions — 1. What is her age?

What are the number, the sex, the ages, and the circumstances of her children?

3. What is a fair estimate of her property?

4. What is her ability to help herself?5. What connexions has she, who are bound to afford her assistance? And in what way do they assist her?

What is her income? 6.

Suffolk.

7. What peculiar circumstances render her an object of charity; or make it desirable that she should have aid this year?

The Congregationalists here enumerated all belong to the New England States; but there is a considerable number in some of the other States.

The Presbyterians had, in 1834, in addition to 1,914 ministers, 421 licentiates and candidates.

There are three synods of the Associate Reformed Church; but the numbers in the table all belong to the

"Synod of the West."

The number of communicants belonging to the Baptist denomination in the United States and the British Provinces, as stated by the "Triennial Baptist Register" for 1836, is 517,523: the number in England and Wales, 140,000: in the world, 696,692.

The Methodists, in addition to the travelling preachers, who alone are included in the table, have many local preachers; and the number of their congregations is supposed to be twice as great as the number of the travelling preachers.

The Bishops of the Methodist Episcopal Church have no particular provinces or districts. Each one is Bishop of the church throughout the whole United States. There are 22 Annual Conferences, which are defined by geographical limits; and the Bishops, by an arrangement of their own, so interchange their visits to the different Annual Conferences, that each Bishop visits each Conference once in four years. The General Conference meets once in four years.

The Society of Friends, called Quakers, have meetings in 18 of the States and Territories; but their greatest increase is in the newly settled parts of the United States.

A division took place in the Society in the years 1827 and 1828, and the two parts are known by the names of Orthodox and Hicksites; the latter are so called from Elias Hicks, of Jericho, Long Island, N. Y., an eminent minister of that denomination, whose followers are Socinians. There are yearly meetings of the Friends in London and Dublin which are undivided and Orthodox, and 8 in the United States; viz. New England, New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Virginia, North Carolina, Ohio, and Indiana. Those of New England, Virginia, and N. Carolina are undivided and are Orthodox; in the other States are yearly meetings of both connections.

The number of the Friends in the United States is estimated at about 100,000, of whom about two-thirds are Orthodox, and one-third Hicksites .- Am. Alm.

General Association in Massachusetts.

This body was organized in June, 1805. It is composed of delegations from particular Associations of evangelical Congregational Ministers, two from each Association. Its members "admit, as articles of faith, the doctrines of Christianity as they are generally expressed in the Assembly's Shorter Catechism," and consider these doctrines which have been generally embraced by the churches of New England as the "basis of their union." This body wholly disclaims ecclesiastical power or authority over the churches, or the opinions of individuals. The essential objects, as expressed in their Constitution, are "to promote brotherly intercourse and harmony, and their mutual animation, assistance, and usefulness as ministers of Christ." Memorandum Checks.

It has been decided by the Supreme Court of this State that a memorandum check, of itself, is not evidence of a debt; and unless supported by collateral proof of the payment and receipt of money, cannot sustain an action. The insertion of the words "borrowed and received" in the common form of the memorandum check will obviate the difficulty, and furnish lenders with sufficient evidence of the loan.

DR. HERSCHEL'S TABLE

For Foretelling the Weather, through all the Lunations of each Year, forever,—amended by DR. ADAM CLARKE.

This table and the accompanying remarks are the result of many years' actual observation; the whole being constructed on a due consideration of the attraction of the sun and moon, in their several positions respecting the earth, and will, by simple inspection, show the observer what kind of weather will most probably follow the entrance of the moon into any of its quarters, and that so near the truth as to be seldom or never found to fail.

If the new moon, the lst qr., the full moon, or the last qr.happens	IN SUMMER.	IN WINTER.
2 in the morning,	Fair. { Cold, with frequent } showers	Hard frost, unless the wind be S. or W. Snow and Stormy
4 and 6 " 6 and 8 " 8 and 10 "	Rain. Wind and rain. Changeable	Rain. Stormy. Cold rain, if wind W. Snow, if east.
At 12 o'cl'k, at noon and 2 P. M.	Frequent Showers. Very rainy	Cold and high wind. Snow or rain.
Between 2 and 4 P. M. 4 and 6	Changeable. Fair. Fair, if wind N. W.)	Fair and mild. Fair. Fair and frosty, if wind
6 and 8 " }8 and 10 "10 and midnight	Rainy, if S. or S. W. Ditto.	north or north-east. Rain or sn. if S. or S. W. Ditto. Fair and frosty.

Observations.—1. The nearer the time of the moon's change, first quarter, full and last quarter, are to midnight, the fairer will the weather be during the seven days following.

- 2. The space for this calculation occupies from ten at night till two next morning.
- The nearer to mid-day or noon, the phases of the moon happen, the more foul or wet weather may be expected during the next seven days.
- 4. The space for this calculation occupies from ten in the forenoon to two in the afternoon. These observations refer principally to the summer, though they affect spring and autumn nearly in the same ratio,
- 5. The moon's change, first quarter, full, and last quarter, happening during six of the afternoon hours, i. e. from four to ten, may be followed by fair weather; but this is mostly dependent on the wind, as is noted in the table.
- 6. Though the weather, from a variety of irregular causes, is more uncertain in the latter part of autumn, the whole of winter, and the beginning of spring, yet, in the main, the above observations will apply to those periods also.
